Red Apples

Smog

I went down to the river
To meet the widow
She gave me an apple
It was redI slept in her black arms for a century
She wanted nothing in return
I gave her nothing in return
I gave her nothing in returnThe ghost of her husband
Beautiful as a horse
Pulled up an apple cart
Full of millions of red apples for us

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/