

Crying, Waiting, Hoping

The Beatles

Crying, crying, waiting, waiting
Hoping, hoping you'll come back
I just can't seem to get you off my mind
Crying, crying, waiting, waiting
Hoping, hoping you'll come back
You're the one I love
I think about you all the time
Crying, crying, doo d-doo doo
Tears keep a-falling all night long
Waiting, waiting, doo d-doo doo
It seems so useless I know it's wrong
To keep on crying, crying, waiting, waiting
Hoping, hoping you'll come back baby
Someday soon things will change
And you'll be mine
Crying, crying, doo d-doo doo
Tears keep a-falling all night long
Waiting, waiting, doo d-doo doo
It seems so useless I know it's wrong
To keep on crying, crying, waiting, waiting
Hoping, hoping you'll come back
Maybe someday soon things will change
And you'll be mine
Crying, crying
Waiting, waiting
Hoping, hoping
