Crying, Waiting, Hoping

The Beatles

Crying, crying, waiting, waiting Hoping, hoping you'll come back I just can't seem to get you off my mind Crying, crying, waiting, waiting Hoping, hoping you'll come back You're the one I love I think about you all the time Crying, crying, doo d-doo doo Tears keep a-falling all night long Waiting, waiting, doo d-doo doo It seems so useless I know it's wrong To keep on crying, crying, waiting, waiting Hoping, hoping you'll come back baby Someday soon things will change And you'll be mine Crying, crying, doo d-doo doo Tears keep a-falling all night long Waiting, waiting, doo d-doo doo It seems so useless I know it's wrong To keep on crying, crying, waiting, waiting Hoping, hoping you'll come back Maybe someday soon things will change And you'll be mine Crying, crying Waiting, waiting Hoping, hoping
