

What the Eyeballs Did

Atoms for Peace

A blunt handcuff fell from the sky
Just picked a year
No one calls no reason no right
No waiting on me

???? danced all ????
Behind the screen
And this is just another avarice
And it was an album of stars in the sky
Gone sad all year

It happens
It happens
Happens

A troubled world goes on in silence
But not for me
And everything usually ????
Is (???branding???) me

What the eyeballs did
They ran and they hid
It's not lack of feelings
Just that's how it is
