Candy West "Turnaround"

Verse 1:

You'vebeen waiting for a breakthrough
And it feels like it just won't come
You've been praying for a miracle
And it feels like it's just taking too long
You've been waiting for a change
But You Gotta Keep Holding On
It we'll work out some way somehow
Cuz' I believe that God's gonna turn it around.

Verse 2:

You've been looking for a way out
But you can't find the open door
You've been searching for the answers
Are you don't know what you're searching for
You've been praying for a change
But you've got to keep holding on
It will work out some way somehow
Cuz' I believe that God's going to turn it around.

You gotta remember, yes you do
It will (Work out for your good)
My God is faithful, yes He is
(Track record is good)
You got to go back in your mind and remember
(Times He's pulled you through)
It will work out someway somehow
Cuz' I believe (cuz' I believe God's going to turn it around)

Vamp:

Ooooohhhhhhh turnaround is coming soon
Ooh turnaround is coming soon
Hey (turnaround is coming soon)

I believe (repeat)

You got a hold til' the morning (repeat)
Weeping may endure for a night, but you're (repeat)
I believe (o-o-oh Turnaround coming soon)
(repeat)

Listen,
God's going to turn it around; let me hear you say
(God's gonna turn it around)
(repeat)

Turn it around
(Turn it around I know, turn it around I know God's gonna turn it around)
(repeat)

Drive:

God's gonna turn it around
(God's gonna turn it around) (repeat)
