

The Happy Birthday Song

Andrew Bird

When I wake up in the morning
Pour the coffee and I read the paper
An' then I slowly and so softly do the dishes
And feed the fishesSing me "Happy Birthday"
Sing it like it's going to be your last day
Like it's Hallelujah
Don't just let it pass on through yaIt's a giant among cliches
And that's why I want you to sing it anyway
Sing me "Happy Birthday"
Only 'cause hell, what's it all about anywaySing me "Happy Birthday"
Happy birthday, it's gonna be your last day
Gonna be your last day here on earthSing me "Happy Birthday"
Happy birthday, like it's gonna be your
Gonna be your last day
