

Darling One (feat. Adam Duritz)

Cracker

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

I hear a voice that fights the wind, the rain that keeps fallin'

And I feel a river rushin' in between you and me

And you keep on lookin' for something that's not lost

And I wish that somehow I could carry you across
Why don't you rest your worries darling one, sweetheart?
Why don't you rest your worries darling one, sweetheart? Sweetheart
When they told you that the great parade had long since passed

I saw you waiting there for the good times to come back

I'm feelin' blue 'cause there's so much to live up to

And I wish that somehow I could give it all to you
Why don't you rest your worries darling one, sweetheart?
Why don't you rest your worries darling one, sweetheart? Sweetheart
I'm feelin' blue 'cause there's so much to live up to

And I wish that somehow I could give it all to you
Why don't you rest your worries darling one, sweetheart?

Why don't you rest your worries darling one, sweetheart?

Why don't you rest your worries darling one, sweetheart?

Why don't you rest your worries darling one, sweetheart? Sweetheart
