Don't Send Me No Angels

George Jones

When the storm clouds gather and I'm losing my way
She stands right beside me, she lights up my day
She's the one thing I found right in a world that's gone wrong
She's the words and the music to the world's finest song
Lord, let me keep her at least for a while
I promise I'll love her 'till I've walked my last mile
When your trumpets are sounding and you're playing my song
Don't send me no angels 'cause I've got my own
She stayed with me through the hard times that's still goin' on

That old feeling between us, it's still coming on strong
When my eyes close forever and my last breath is gone
Don't send me no angels 'cause I've got my own
Lord, let me keep her at least for a while
I promise I'll love her 'till I've walked my last mile
When your trumpets are sounding and you're playing my song
Don't send me no angels 'cause I've got my own
Don't send me no angels 'cause I've got my own
