How Will You Feel Tonight

Poco

How will you feel tonight
When you're all alone
And you still think you're right
How will you feel tonightAlways running
You never walk
Do you ever listen
Or do you just talkAfraid to take a chance
You'll always lose
You only like to dance
In the same old shoesHow will you feel tonight
When you're all alone
And you still think you're right
How will you feel tonightDesperation
We've all had our share
A different situation
When there's nobody thereYou ride in a wind of uncertainty
Filled with only vacant dreams
From another time another place
If you could see the lookon your face
Whish you could be in my placeHow will you feel tonight
How will you feel tonight
