

Falling in Love for the Night

Charlie Daniels Band

Well, her name was Maria
She came from Bajia
She had a passion for diamonds and gold
She done broke every heart
In Puerto Vallarta
By the time she was eighteen years old Then she left for Las Vegas
With Senor Rodreguez
She didn't care what anybody would think
And when she came back
She had two Cadillacs and a mink Well, he came from Kentucky
All the boys called him 'Lucky'
He loved to ramble around and have fun
A wild-eyed joker with a talent for poker
And a good lookin' son of a gun Strong as a bear
Kinda devil may care
But he had a weakness, alright
For good lookin' ladies
And falling in love for the night He met Maria in a small bar in Mexico City
Where him and his buddies had gone
Down to see the bullfight He took on look in those flashy brown eyes
And said, "Here we go again" When these high powered lovers
Got a look at each other
They thought it was love at first sight
They danced and got high
And then by and by She came up to his room for the night
Then that jet-settin' mama
Left for Yokohama
With a millionaire from San Antone
And when Lucky woke up
His loot and his lady were gone Now he sits in Louisville drownin'
In sour mash whiskey
While she rides through the streets
Of Juarez in a long limousine He lost his pride
And a whole lot besides
And she just don't give a damn I guess that's what you get
For fallin' in love for the night
I guess that's what you get
For fallin' in love for the night

Songwriters

Charlie DanielsPublished by

SONGS OF UNIVERSAL, INC. Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>