Turn It Up

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Friday night and feelin' alright
At the end of a long hard week
Picked her up she jumped into my truck
And slipped into the passenger seat
She said, "I don't care where we go
As long as we are rockin' to your radio"Turn it up, turn it up
There ain't no such thing as loud enough
Let's rock, I'm ready to roll
Let's go crazy, turn it upWe were drivin' moonlight ridin'
Wound up down a dead end road
I was in the mood tryin' to make my move
I leaned over and I pulled her close
She said, "Plenty of time for romance
Right now all I wanna do is dance"So turn it up, turn it up
There ain't no such thing as loud enough
Let's rock, I'm ready to roll
Let's go crazy'Cause all I wanna do tonight is Shout at the moon, shoot out the lights
It don't matter as long as the music's on
She said, "Whatever they're playin'
They're playin' our songShe said, "I don't care where we go
As long as we are rockin' to your radio"So turn it up, turn it up
There ain't no such thing as loud enough
Let's rock, I'm ready to roll
Let's go crazyTurn it up, turn it up
There ain't no such thing as loud enough
Let's rock, I'm ready to roll
Let's go crazy
Turn it up, turn it up
Yeah, turn it up
Turn it up
