

Cursin' Air

Joe Purdy

Look no more better run and hide
There's a madman shooting wild

And I saw you walking
And I saw him aim
Bullets hit you
You sunk down
Right above your body with a hollowed eyes
is a madman shooting wild

Did you lose your conscience?
Did you lose your heart?
Did you lose your mind boy?
Went too far?
Is that a monster?
Is that a child?
Is that a madman shooting wild?

There's a grieving mother
Down on the square
Lighting candles
Cursin' air

There's a rattled country
With covered eyes
Locked and loaded
Shooting wild
