Her Song

C21

When the day is done and I'm without her
I feel like a cloud across the sun
"cause she`s all I haveI feel it in my blood
That maybe I'm holding on to a never ending roadOohhh I`ll never know
If I'll be looking back when I grow old
And feel like I do nowShe`s the only one
I need her in my life
Anything else seems so wrong
I have her in my heart
And I will always love her 'till the end of time
She's the only one
I hold her in my dreams
Everytime I close my eyes
I feel her in my arms
I feel her in my heart
This is her songEverytime I'm down and lonely
It feels like praying without believing
When she`s not by my side"cause now I know how much she means to me
But I can't change the way she feels Without her in my lifeOoohhh.....She`s the only one.....I'm looking for
A way to let her know
I'm searching for
A way to touch her heart
