Yes

Musiq Soulchild

Let me get this out the way
So there ain't no complications
Later on for us, no
But I know things don't stay the same
People grow and seasons change
But when it comes to love
Don't you feel like
You ever gotta worry about my Feelings changing for you over time
'Cause when I say I care, girl, I mean it
So when the world
And the odds are against us
You won't have to question
The answer is yes
When two or three years from now
You start having some doubts
'Bout if this love will last
The answer is yes
I'll still think you're beautiful
'Cause I'm more attracted to what's inside of you
You don't have to guess
The answer is yes
'Cause I love you
All I care about is your happiness
So the answer is yes
People just don't stick around
Build you up and let you down
But I am not one of those, no
I understand that you've been burned
Honesty is what you deserve
Yeah, so that's what I am giving you, girl
So when the world
And the odds are against us

You won't have to question
The answer is yes
When two or three years from now
You start having some doubts
'Bout if this love will last

The answer is yes
I'll still think you're beautiful
'Cause I'm more attracted to what's inside of you
You don't have to guess
The answer is yes
Now if you ask will I go
When you need me most
The answer is no
I'm dedicated to what we have
But will I be here
The way that I promised?
I'll say with no fear
The answer is yes
When two or three years from now
You start having some doubts
'Bout if this love will last
The answer is yes
And I'll still think you're beautiful
'Cause I'm more attracted to what's inside of you
You don't have to guess
The answer is yes
When two or three years from now
You start having some doubts
'Bout if this love will last
The answer is yes
I'll still think you're beautiful
'Cause I'm more attracted to what's inside of you
You don't have to guess
The answer is yes
