Fallen Angels

Deceptikonz

(Hook)
Aaah coming down for me,
aaah they reach out for me

(Verse 1)
Now if I had a brick for every single fault that I had
Id build steps and migrate to Gods land
So while you succeed in this life
I?d enjoy the fruits of my labour in the next life
Of course life has to have it?s tragedies
Reality elimination is a has to be
So if that?s the case I greet it farewell
Each day each time I sleep

(Verse 2)
I greet the ugly face of death with a frown and open arms
Comforted by voices from the other side like Joan of Arc
So embark on this chosen path
Oh my God its like I'm forced to fear you
Conjure up thoughts way to heavy for a normal scale
Recite bible verses when I battle my fallen angels
My spirit plays you in an out of body experience
And rest on accumulous clouds for brief periods

(Verse 3)
I was born under death stars my birth was made mysterious
Approaching falling arrows from the bows of Sagittarius
Im stuck my lucks run out but I never mind
I refuse to be the cargo being shipped to cloud 9
My thoughts make me pay with my reflection
Think he can stab me in the holy mirror or is that just another dimension
Food awaits before you climb the stairs on the carpet
But endure the pains of the angels blowing the 7 trumpets

CHORUS
I see angels coming down for me, and as they call my name they reach out for me

(Verse 4)
So yo what do you believe in heaven or hell
With my hands time shifts from 11 to 12

They connect and form a crucifix
And shown towards Judass children
Till they act like they never rebelled
I question my reflection down the wishing well
Where do I belong Only time will tell
Ayo my mind rebels at the sight of power
Got a date with destiny and 'Im already running late by an hour
See you?re not thinking properly
Cos skills are round objects that manifest miraculous properties

(Verse 5)
Ive had a vision that I'm twice seen
I'm climbing out of quick sand pulled by some light beams
I chose the wrong path that's when me and Jesus parted
I kept walking and found myself in pure darkness
Could've climbed the stairs to the highest cloud
But I'm stuck in a tunnel with no light to guide me out
Mislead in the storm from these 5 blackbirds
The reason why I couldn't see the light I had my back turned
It told me not to turn back to where I started
Walking is easy but temptation is the hardest

CHORUS x 1

(Verse 6)
Unique prophets that leave barcodes at the back of the neck
With the eyesight that could detect a speck
I play the magic flute of Peter Piper
There were 4 monks that made a circle to make a cipher
Spat words in different languages
Some of them demons from below and found out what a spasm is Never will I be liable for such a sight
These are the reasons why we have lazy eyes

(Verse 7)
Man lessons to life are found in the most awkward places
Just when you thought things were real basic
While man tries to rearrange Gods plan
The gap between the rich and the poor expands
I live humble even though I'm on the broke side
Against all odds we kiwis do fly
Youth of the modern society
Starting to acknowledge these heavenly creatures finally

(Verse 8)

You think there's reasons behind the unexplainable
Stigmata and the negative karma and Gabriel
Fallen angels with crooked halos and ruffled feathers
These dirty misfits were the first evicted from the heavens
Now if the molecules aren't insoluble
Then how come quantum physics suggest time travel is possible
Sometimes I feel my limbs have been detached
People extend their arms but sometimes I can't reach back

(Verse 9)
You will find peace beneath the wood under the stone
Faith and strength is given when you stand alone
You cant trust your friends nor your brothers too
They just stab you in the back and laugh in fun at you
What are you gonna choose when the angel lends its hand
Run and reach or you can walk and turn your back
If you choose to walk then nobody will break your fall
Cos life is like a floor filled with trap doors
