Whisper

Headstone Epitaph

[Tim: inspired by a psychEdelic moment where] [i tried to create a ballad that wasn't to classic.]
[Lovers afflicted with doubts.][vers:] will I follow words I've ever known will I leave you here leave you now alone my dear will I always know [ref:]
whisper my aim and let me know the same let me know what I don't know and what I always claim [vers:]
remember what I've told to you that I am susceptible to what you say is my command
my will and my life is in your hand will I always know
