

Funeral Summer

Reverend Bizarre

It came like a black cloud rolling through the sky without warning I had to learn the truth.
As the book was closed we all knew it was his turn to die and I was to be cruelly evicted from my youth That first day of summer I unveiled the secrets of Doom and I walked with legion of Demons by my side.
My whole world fell into the void at his funeral room, caressed by summer's gentle breeze I cried Oh Lord, I can't conceive why was he torn from me? Death is all that I see when I observe the world we have built and Death is the majesty we all have to face.
But you my God are the one and your word is fulfilled as we sleep under peaceful shade of your grace
