

The Fusion (feat. Bass Inc. Instinct)

Wes Mex

turn into something else.

We just revealed our purpose.
We don't have to worry about it anymore.
What do we want?
We want to... turn into something else.

I'm coming for the fusion forthcoming stage
of a process began
right now
in the future

here I am
ready for the jam
session
massive mess
unjustified
escalation of

loss of consciousness
i wanna be your guest
and here you are my gift
the dedication

for the poisoned noise
d'you hear my voice?
remind is nothing but the medium
for the very virus

sirens
without sadness in their voices
butterflies
sweetly melting in harmonics

the basic instinct's only guide that you can have
so let it lead

We dreamt we were men... and we loved it.
But now the dream is over... and something different is awake.

guide that you can have
