

Crush

Useless ID

I took a walk outside and carried thoughts of you with me to the ocean.
A faded image seen from far away reminded me of you.
Mabye now it's time to let it out.If I say hello, would you hide away?
While the dream of love at first site dies out.
Here I am losing you once agian, tonight.I know where you're at and I know even better that I got a crush on since the summer came around.
If you'd listen up, give me achance to express the way I feel.
I promise you we'd be alright.If I say goodbye, would it be the last?
2 more years and you might know me.
I will be the one singing this melody to you...
