Abigor

Life may have mercy but I've none
You can never guess what hell is like
 Not a sea of fire...
 Nor you'll find chains of ice...
But the word of God is unknown there
 Nothing is what it seems
 The dismal truth is so hard to face
You're just living in a dream - fear the awakening...
 Now enter my castle of pain
 Cross the path of sorrow and fear
There'll be no light until your soul ignites
 'Til your soul ignites
 Realise the truth...
I am the lord upon the nightsky
And I'll never serve in heaven
 'Cause I rule in hell
But I am still dreaming
 Unsilent...
