

Doomed Moon

Young Widows

If you tried to avoid me
It seems like you failed
Like I'd forget
And when luck ran out
That mule that drug you
Left you crushed
Where the vultures feed
I flew above to watch you bleed
I flew above as you looked at me
With those moon flushed eyes
Rolling faithful, rolling far
Beyond to me
Far, beyond to me
Carry you home
Doomed moon
Carry you home
Beyond to me Since you failed to avoid me
I'll be your cherub
It might hurt one bit in purgatory
In heaven, as well as hell
I flew above and watched you heal
I flew above as you took to me
With those moon flushed eyes
Rolling faithful, rolling far
Beyond to me
Carry you home
Doomed moon
Carry you home
Beyond to me
