

Lovefool

No Vacation

Don't look me in the eye.
I get embarrassed when you see me cry.
These thoughts I can't articulate.
Got me feelin' some type of way. Guess I was a fool for believing you.
Yeah the truth hurts more than a lie or two.
More than a lie or two. Door closes and you're gone.
You left me hangin' on this love.
For far too long. Nostalgia has me feeling bittersweet.
Reminiscing on the days things were easy.
Guess I was a fool for believing you.
Yeah the truth hurts more than a lie or two.
More than a lie or two.
