

You Should Drive

John Kloberdanz

Why be jealous, there's nothing to it at all
I'm just having a little bit of harmless fun at the party
Why be angry, it's not like I like them much at all
I'm just feeling relaxed by all the drinks at the party

Time to go home, I think you should drive this time
Time to go home, I'm not looking for anything tonight

Smile, remember, yelling won't solve anything
You're just angry because I need you to drive again
Smile, remember, I'm laughing at everything
Because I'm feeling too relaxed you have to drive again

Time to go home, I know you should drive this time
Time to go home, I'll stay on my side tonight

Time to go home, I know you should drive this time
Time to go home, I'll stay on my side tonight
