Hi for the Beggarman

Ennis

with his to-roo-roo-roo rent-en-hi
a to-roo-roo-roo rent-en-hi to-roo-roo-roo rent-en-hi
and hi for the beggar man

with his to-roo-roo-roo rent-en-hi
a to-roo-roo-roo rent-en-hi
and hi for the beggar man

the night being dark and very cold a woman took pity on a poor old soul she took pity on a poor old soul and asked him to come in

a to-roo-roo-roo rent-en-hi
and hi for the beggar man

he sat down in a chimney nook he hung his coat up on a hook
and merrily he did sing

a to-roo-roo-roo rent-en-hi
and hi for the beggar man

In the middle of the night, the old one rose she missed the beggar man and all his clothes she clapped and clapped and clapped again saying he has my daughter gone

a to-roo-roo-roo rent-en-hi
and hi for the beggar man

three long years had passed and gone since that man came back again asking for her charity would she lodge a beggar man

I've never lodged any but the one and with that one, my daughter's gone
so merrily you may gang

and hi for the beggar man

yonder there your daughter stands she is the finest in the land and servants there at her command said she went with the beggar man

a to-roo-roo-roo rent-en-hi

a to-roo-roo-roo rent-en-hi

a to-roo-roo-roo rent-en-hi
