Katzenjammer

Aendlex

It's not too early for whiskey
It's not too early for smoke
It's not too soon to give a good goddamn
I got the feeling you don't

But you can sit here beside me
Yeah, you know I'm eager to please
There's no more room in this heartbreak town for us
And now you're down on your knees, yeah

You never wanted love
You never wanted it
You never wanted love
You never wanted it

You know sometimes when I'm sinking
I think I'm too low to fall
And the lines, they start to grow on my face
But I don't notice at all

Won't you come sit here beside me?
Yeah, you wave that thing like a gun
It's not enough to put the cold steel looks to me, honey
You'll hit a home-run, yeah

You never wanted love
You never wanted it
You never wanted love
You never wanted it

You said you wanna run away, yeah
You said you wanna run away
In the same old way
Oh

You said you wanna run away, yeah
You said you wanna run away
In the same old way
Oh

You never wanted love
You never wanted it
You never wanted love
You never wanted it
