Rocka Rolla

Judas Priest

Man eatin' momma, steam driven hammer
Sorts the men out from the boys
Takes no messin', all in wrestlin'
Is one of her pride and joysShe's a classy, flashy, lassy
Imitation sapphire shine
Two faced liar, full of fire
But I know that flame is mineRocka rolla woman for a rocka rolla man
You can take her if you want her
If you think you can
Rocka rolla woman for a rocka rolla man
You can take her if you want her, you canShe's a grip and choke ya, heavy smoker
Wrong side of the law
Midnight shady, good time lady
Heavy, ready show you what forBarroom fighter, ten pint a nighter
Definite ninety-nine
Diamond cluster, knuckle duster
Feline on the borderlineRocka rolla woman for a rocka rolla man
You can take her if you want her
If you think you can
Rocka rolla woman for a rocka rolla man
You can take her if you want her, you canRocka rolla woman for a rocka rolla man
You can take her if you want her
If you think you can
Rocka rolla woman for a rocka rolla man
You can take her if you want her, you canRocka rolla woman for a rocka rolla man
You can take her if you want her
If you think you can
Rocka rolla woman for a rocka rolla man
You can take her if you want her, you can
