I Won't Care

All Faces Down

the scales fell from my eyes oh god it's all a lie corruption and ignorance have replaced all moral insight the people do what they want and it's bitter reality if this keeps going on we won't have a chance to be

I don't care
I won't care
I don't need anything from you we hate it, they all fake it we will never need anything from you the political constitutions, the laws, the jails, they strike us down we cannot say what we want to minds are free, but cries are dumb one day we'll raise our voices, one day we'll take control but till we wait for this day each one will sing from underground

I don't care
I won't care
I don't need anything from you
we hate it, they all fake it
