

Let Go

MIYAVI

The quest, the stress
The pressure for success
Obsessed, I guess
Emptiness is all that's left
One voice inside tells me that I can fly
One on the other side tells me run and hide
Shouting to my soul

Let go
Let go
Let go

This mess I'm in
I'll either sink or swim
My hope is growing dim
Wonder could this be the end?
The more I think the deeper down I sink
The fear I'm trying to drink
Comes back up again
Shouting to my soul

Shouting to my soul
What I already know
Time to lose control
