Loser

Cute Is What We Aim For

A loser can win whenever they want to
All they gotta, gotta do
Is bring you down
Is bring you down
A loser can win whenever they choose to
All they gotta, gotta do
Is bring you down
Is bring you down
I read it, a man up in a room
Can't control everything I do
But what do I know?
What do I know?
And if the story of that man isn't true
Then tell me what I should do
Should I take off the blindfold?
Or do what I'm told?
A loser can win whenever they want to
All they gotta, gotta do
Is bring you down
Is bring you down
A loser can win whenever they choose to
All they gotta, gotta do
Is bring you down
Is bring you down
Is morality real to me?
I cannot believe in what I cannot see
Oh no, I will not be sold
The world has this ability
To make a life look sweet
Oh no, this can't be complete
Oh no
But we'll never know about the life I chose
I won't believe, I won't be so naive until I go
Yeah, we'll never know 'til these eyes close
But we'll never know about the life I chose
I won't believe, I won't be so naive until I go
Yeah, we'll never know 'til my eyes close
Whoa
A loser can win whenever they want to

All they gotta, gotta do
Is bring you down
Is bring you down
A loser can win whenever they choose to
All they gotta, gotta do
Is bring you down
Is bring you down
