In The Moment

Frankie J

Baby I gotta say what's on my mind
Girl I think that it's about time
I gotta let you know that I want a little more
'Cuz this is killing me, it's burning inside
No more holding back
Baby you set my soul on fire
Gotta face the fact
I never felt this way before
We started off as friends and everything was cool
But things started getting a little serious between me and you
Late night phone calls, talking till like 3 in the morn'
We found ourselves caught up in the moment
Days we spent together
And the nights you used to kick it at the club, just like one of us
You always seemed to fit in, you always played your position
And I think that you could be the one
No more holding back
Baby you set my soul on fire
Gotta face the fact
I ain't felt this way before
We started off as friends, everything was cool
But things started getting a little serious between me and you
Late night phone calls, talking till like 3 in the morn'
We found ourselves caught up in the moment
Caught up, I'm so caught up, caught up
Days we spent together
And the nights you used to kick it at the club, just like one of us
You always seemed to fit in, you always played your position
And I think that you could be the one
We started off as friends, everything was cool
But things started getting a little serious between me and you
Late night phone calls, talking till like 3 in the morn
We found ourselves caught up in the moment
We started off as friends, everything was cool
But things started getting a little serious between me and you
Late night phone calls, talking till like 3 in the morn'
We found ourselves caught up in the moment
We started off as friends, everything was cool
But things started getting a little serious between me and you

Late night phone calls, talking till like 3 in the morn'
We found ourselves caught up in the moment
