Let Me Burn

Creatures

You are the stream that flows in the desert
Reviving my heart and flooding my soul
You are the flame that splits through the darkness
To burn up my sin and point where to goAnd I worship You
Straight to You, I run
Lord, my cry is this
That Your will be doneLet the nations rejoice in You
Let Your people return to You
Let the source of my life be You
Let me burn for YouLet Your fire of justice reign
Let creation confess Your name
Turn my heart from stone to clay
Let me burn with praiseYou are the wind that moves through the stillness
Removing my doubts and lifting my wings
You are the rock, well, that's there in the quicksand
To crush all Your foes and steady my feetAnd I worship You
Straight to You I run
Singing songs of joy
Love Your kingdom comeLet the nations rejoice in You
Let Your people return to You
Let the source of my life be You
Let me burn for YouLet Your fire of justice reign
Let creation confess Your name
Turn my heart from stone to clay
Let me burn, let me burn with praise
Oh, with praiseYou are the wind that moves through the stillness
Removing my doubts and lifting my wings
You are the rock that's there in the quicksand
To crush all Your foes and steady my feetAnd I worship You
Straight to You I run
Singing songs of joy
Love Your kingdom comeLet the nations rejoice in You
Let Your people return to You
Let the source of my life be You
Let me burn for YouLet Your fire of justice reign
Let creation confess Your name
Turn my heart from stone to clay
Let me burnLet the nations rejoice in You
Let your people return to You

Let the source of my life be You
Let me burn for YouLet Your fire of justice reign
Let creation confess Your name
Turn my heart from stone to clay
Let me burn, let me burn
Oh, let me burn, let me burn for You, JesusLet Your people return, Lord, return to You, return to You
Have mercy, have mercy
Let me burn, let me burn, let me burn with praise
Ooh, with praise
