Three Chain Road

Lee Kernaghan

Billy was a drover
He lived out on the three chain road
Fell in love with Mary and they married
She made his shack a homeHe drove them off to Queensland
And it hurt to have to leave her on her own
But she promised shed be waiting
When he brought the cattle homeThere's a lonesome wind blowing down
The three chain road tonight
Its sending out a warning as she blows
Billy don't go riding down
The three chain road tonight
The wind is crying Billy please don't goBilly came home early
He wasn't due for many days
Walked into the cabin and found his Mary
In a strangers arms she layIn the blindness of his anger
The fatal shots rang out from Billys gun
In that smoky silence he knew
And he wept for what he'd doneThere's a lonesome wind blowing down
The three chain road tonight
Its sending out a warning as she blows
Billy don't go riding down
The three chain road tonight
The wind is crying Billy please don't goBilly walked out slowly
He knew what must be done
Somewhere in the darkness a shot rang out
Billys time had comeThey say his spirits out there
You can feel it every time the cold wind blows
Its warding off the strangers
Who come by the three chain roadThere's a lonesome wind blowing down
The three chain road tonight
Its sending out a warning as she blows
Billy don't go riding down
The three chain road tonight
There's a lonesome wind blowing down
The three chain road tonight
Its sending out a warning as she blows
Billy don't go riding down
The three chain road tonight

The wind is crying Billy please don't go

Songwriters
GARTH IVAN RICHARD PORTER, LEE RAYMOND KERNAGHANPublished by Lyrics Â© Spirit Music Group, BMG RIGHTS MANAGEMENT US, LLC Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/