

I Rest in You

Daniel Thornton

When all other voices are stilled
And I turn my eyes to You
And I stand before You alone
I know, I know No guilt to hamper my way
Distractions I leave behind
Worshiping You I draw near
I know I rest in You, I rest in You
I rest in You, I rest in You When things do not go as I'd planned
And I'm on my knees again
Ready to hear all You say
I know
