She's All Mine

Diffuser

When the sky is dark enough
You can see her glowing like an angel does
She comes and goes with the flow
She comes and goes without a worry in the worldShe's all mine
I never thought love could come back around again
I'm in too deep, I can't retreat
She makes me feel just like I'm a kid again
She's all mineI can't remember what it's like
Living day to day without her in my life
She comes and goes with the flow
She comes and goes without a worry in the worldShe's all mine
I never thought love could come back around again
I'm in too deep, I can't retreat
She makes me feel just like I'm a kid again
She's all mineShe fell into a hole inside my heart
I have to be the luckiest by far
I know that she is all I'll ever want
And all I'll ever needShe's all mine
I never thought love could come back around again
I'm in too deep, I can't retreat
She makes me feel just like I'm a kid again
She's all mineShe's all mine, she's all mine, she's all mine
