May the Truth Be Known

Flipper

Once it starts you never see them
Once it starts there goes your freedom
Now youÂ´re standinÂ´ by the front door
You want it back and even moreChorus:
It was once written that those
Who give the truth
Become the slaves of the receiversOnce it starts you canÂ´t believe it
Once it starts you cannot see it
Stripped of all but left with your senses
All tangled up in a useless adventureChorusOnce it starts you never see them
Once it starts you cannot believe them
YouÂ´ve torn my heart right from my chest
ItÂ´s time to give that subject to a restChorusOnce it starts you cannot forgive them
Once it starts you donÂ´t want to live then
All we needed was a little trusting love
WeÂ´ll stand proud and rise aboveChorus
