Lifetimes

Sheryl Crow

Take off your halo, take off your golden crown
The spotlight's off, the shades are down
Where are your friends now, they're ghosts in a windowpane
Sometimes it's hard to stay the sameAnd we can live lifetimes in a single day

No matter what you do, I love you anyway

You say if you're lost inside, I get lonely too

Even in the worst of times, I give my best to youI dreamed I was swimming, fighting the undertow Drifting in circles, no place to go

And when I woke up, I was wringing wet

So much stronger than beforeAnd we can live lifetimes in a single day

No matter what you do, I love you anyway

You say if you're lost inside, I get lonely too

Even in the worst of times, I give my best to youThe words escape the silence made

The looks betray, I'm not afraidWe can live lifetimes in a single day

No matter what you do, I love you anyway

You say if you're lost inside; well, I get lonely too

Even in the worst of times, I give my best to youEven in the worst of times, I give my best to you
