Mother

Kane

Mother, well don't let me down
Well I've been away, but I'm here right now
And mother, well don't let the past hunt you down
For I've been away, well hey I'm here right now
Well I've been away, but I'm here right now
And I will be hereSo this time, we won't speak a word
I'll swallow my pride, oh I know, well I know you're hurt
And this time, we'll rise like the sun in the sky
We'll light up the dark nights, light the hard times on our way up
We'll light up the hard times, all the way, all the way up
Till you see me againAnd I will be here
And I will not fade
I will not ever fade, no no no no
Right or wrong, life goes onYeah, and I will be here
And I will not fade
I will not ever fade, ever fade, ever fade
