

She Whispers

The Dunwells

I close my eyes
then I go to sleep
as she lays here in front of me
this has got to work
I say thinking she's not listening
I have no doubt
she whispers
Can you hear me as she turns and looks at me her eyes are filled with life I love, I hope she dreams we will make this work for us
she whispers
we will make this work
she whispers
can you hear me
she whispers
can you hear me
she whispers
and she said
it only works if we mean it
aim high
take it with both hands
and lift up the lightning
if you're hurt then we're healing
and it's about time
so take it with both hands
and lift up the lightning
I close my eyes
then I go to sleep
as she lays here in front of me
this has got to work
this is gonna work
aim high
and lift up the lightning
