Just One Kiss

Adam Gregory

i woke up got outta bed looked in the mirror and my eyes were red thinkin' where were you last night mama called from downstairs you better get running or you're gonna be late so i took a pair of dirty jeans from the laundry pile grabed the milk and the cheerios i wolfed it it down in a minute or so saying we're gonna talk tonight well, chill out, let it go it's no big deal mom but if you say so i'll do a little better next time i'll cut the grass and wash the car for twenty dollars from the peanut butter jar and just one kiss, bye bye! you don't pay the bills and you don't pay rent your friends come over and you let them in then you eat out of house and home sweet home of mine, that's right i looked at mom as she shook her head and said hey mom i'm gonna make my bed well, "you just ain't no son of mine", mamma said thanks mom can i borrow the car our little lak sure helped a lot i'll have it back in the parking lot without a scratch this time

well, chill out, let it go it's no big mom but if you say so i'll do a little better next time
for twenty dollars from the peanut butter jar
and just one kiss, bye bye!
i turned the key and i backed up slow with merle haggard on the radio put it in drive and i let it go squealin' out of sight well, chill ot, let it go it's no big deal mom but if you say so

i'll cut the grass wash the car for twenty dollars from the peanut butter jar
and just one kiss, bye bye!
