Alright

Osker

I'm uncomfortable with myself
And your put-downs just do not help
The outcome is I feel like shit
Don't you know when to quit?And I am not doing alright
And I am not doing alrightI always end up feeling bad
So why don't you get off my back?
If I knew that this is what friends are for
I'd never made anyAnd I am not doing alright
And I am not doing alrightNone of this makes sense
They don't support me 'cause they're too busy judging
It's all so unimportant
It makes me feel sorry for themAnd I am not doing alright
And I am not doing alright
