

Do You Like My Wang?

Freezepop

you whisper in my ear, ?it's time to go?
I grabbed you by the hand and wouldn't let it go you wanna see it, and know the truth but you hesitate a moment so your advances don't seem uncouth your breath is hot, caresses slow my heart begins to race, I cannot let it show you've heard about it, the rumor's true it's 2 by 2 by 3 feet and it?s on the desk in front of you

do you like my wang
you know you wanna use it
 do you like my wang
please be gentle, don't abuse it
 do you like my wang
I took it out for you to see
 do you like my wang
 8-bit plastic love machine your train of thought derailed, nothing to say you can't believe I've kept this secret locked away you wanna touch it, and turn it on so I quote you sexy lyrics from a classic 80's journey song ?burning desire, feeding the fire?

I've sunk to new lows lyrically and things are dire but you don't care, and make your move I can see you?re blushing madly and your swooning means that you approve

do you like my wang
 do you like my wang
please be gentle, don't abuse it
I took it out for you to see
 do you like my wang

your touch is soft, you aim to please you trace your fingers over worn 'qwerty' keys with tenderness, I touch your face you look distracted while I hunger for your warm embrace you've waited long enough, I can't say no who am I to stop the information flow the data flickers across the amber screen my very own electric 8-bit plastic love machine

do you like my wang
do you like my wang
please be gentle, don't abuse it
I took it out for you to see
do you like my wang
(2x)
