

Half The Truth

Kaiser Chiefs

Girl and boy, everythin' in full swing
Heads or tails, doesn't make a difference
Beneath the glamor there was always gonna be Amateur dramatics, a lot of bad behavior I would see
One, two, three, only you and me
Wearing nothin' in the lap of luxury
Sip it slowly, not a leg to stand on Take my money, twist of paper
Leave the table, bad behavior I got my spies, swift to every consulate
To be my eyes and tell me what I never see
'Cause a ghost don't fear a lover
Nothin' teeth blank, ah get ready for the credit clubber Secret moore, gettin' it together
With a big fat bowl of alphabet spaghetti
Watch the birdie lookin' through the mirror
Polly wanna cracker, that's not what I heard Take my money, twist of paper
Leave the table, bad behavior I will not lie to you
But I definitely only gave you half the truth
I will not lie to you I will not lie to you
But I definitely only gave you half the truth
I will not lie to you Gentlemen turn off your recorders
I can hear them buzzin' from inside of you're tracksuits
Got to get to California
Where this woman is threatening to sue me Get right back, back to the beginning
Where we start off single and everythin' in full swing
Everyone around you wearing big gold hats, come on Playin' the piano now Take my money, twist of paper
Leave the table, bad behavior I will not lie to you
But I definitely only gave you half the truth
I will not lie to you I will not lie to you
But I definitely only gave you half the truth
I will not lie to you Listen, I won't lie so baby don't cry
The way I'm feeling right now, I'm feeling so high
I can't tell you to choose, baby you know why
'Cause everybody talks about me, I'm a known guy I'll tell you half the truth, at least I told you half
But then all the rest of it, I'll tell you if you only ask
'Cause I'm a gold digger and I should know better I will not lie to you
But I definitely only gave you half the truth
I will not lie to you I will not lie to you
I will not lie to you
I will not lie to you
