

Someone Else

Emitt Rhodes

When you tell someone you care a lot
Prepare yourself for a broken heart
You think you're so strong, you think you're so brave
You'll feel so small and be so afraid
Woah, Woah You like her so much it makes you sick
And you just can't make no sense of it
You can't say yes, but you can't say no
It's for you to guess, for her to know
Woah, Woah Refrain:
Is there someone else she's thinkin of?
Will she hold him close, give him her love
Is there somewhere else she wants to be?
With someone else, not with me I've heard it all before, a thousand lies
When you're feeling lost you compromise
I like her so much it makes me ill
And it makes no sense, and it never will Woah, Woah Refrain I wish I may, I wish I might
I must be wrong, I can't be right
It's all my fault, it always is
I must be crazy, shouldn't I know better than this? Refrain Is there someone else, woah
Is there someone else, woah
