

Amnesia

Skept

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Somebody remind me what happened last night
'Cause I can't remember a thing
This must be what it means
Feel like I've been in a sleeper
I think they call this Amnesia, Charts
Last night was sick
Oh what a city I lost my phone though oh what a pity
When I woke up I found a note that said
Sorry I had to go
I looked around this can't be real
'Cause I don't recognize this
Then I saw the minibar and I was like rar
Somebody terrorized it Not even a bottle of water
Make it worse this room was hotter than a sauna
So I jumped up got ready.
Went downstairs to the hotel lobby
Man are like swear down you're a mad man skeppy
I must have had one to many
'Cause I can't remember anything
After the two Jägermeisters and a bottle of Henny
Somebody remind me what happened last night
'Cause I can't remember a thing
This must be what it means
Feel like I've been in a sleeper
I think they call this Amnesia Who you trying to diss?
Who did you fight with?
Who did you kiss?
Who did you dance with?
Who did you lits?
Aw man, you were a myth I remember walking in blinded by the lights
Look left, look right
Saw two men that I don't like
But I already lit up the room when I walked in

No need for fireworks tonight
 Unless it's on the side of a bottle
 And I'm only here for one night on the high
 So I'm trying to find me a model
 We circled the party once
 Nothing, twice
 Dead third time around I saw a girl I tuck into bed
 Two minutes later, I'm at the bar
 Doing shots of J&Ager
 That's when I blacked out
 Anything after that's all a myth
 Like Lorrie Ager, major
 Somebody remind me what happened last night
 'Cause I can't remember a thing
 This must be what it means
 Feel like I've been in a sleeper
 I think they call this amnesia
 Who you trying to diss?
 Who did you fight with?
 Who did you kiss?
 Who did you dance with?
 Who did you lits?
 Aw man, you were a myth!
 We had one drink, two drink, three drink four
 Had one too many, now you're laying on the floor
 One drink, two drink, three drink, four
 Had one too many, now you're laying on the floor
 You lost your phone
 You lost your friends
 Now here comes that classic line
 I'm never drinking again
 Thought you were casually drinking
 But you were actually bingeing
 Woke up somewhere you've never been to in your whole life and now your thinking
 Somebody remind me
 what happened last night
 'Cause I can't remember a thing
 This must be what it means
 Feel like I've been in a sleeper
 I think they call this Amnesia
 Somebody remind me what happened last night
 'Cause I can't remember a thing
 This must be what it means
 Feel like I've been in a sleeper
 I think they call this amnesia
