

Dancing with Jesus (Bre's Song)

Jason Cassidy

Home is where the heart is,
She showed her heart out on that floor. Mama's calling her to come on home, but she had a dance one more. Spinning in the air, swirling all around. Now that's pretty angels watching over us, 2000 ft off the ground.

It's crazy how
life can change in a moment just like this. One second you're on the floor the next you're wrapped in the arms of Jesus.
She don't ever have to come back down.
You have her forever spinning around.
Honky tonk Heaven never shuts down.
She's on the crowded dance floor up in Heaven
dancing with Jesus now.

Life is hard to understand in hard times just like this. We have to put our faith in the Lord and drop down to our knees.

We'll probably never understand what's involved in His plan.
Just know when there's a paradise waiting when it comes to the bitter end.

Just hug your loved ones, and live like there's no tomorrow. Enjoy life while we can, because our time is only borrowed.
She don't ever have to come back down.
You have her forever
spinning around.

Heaven never shuts down.
She's on the crowded dance floor up in Heaven
dancing with Jesus now.

I know when times get tough it's hard to get up out of bed.
Just close your eyes, picture her face as if these are the words she said.

I don't ever have to come back down.

He'll have me forever spinning around.
Don't be sad feel let down.

You know, I'm on this crowded dance floor
up in Heaven.
I'm on this crowded dance floor up in Heaven,
dancing with Jesus now.
We're watching over all of you now.

Lyrics Submitted by David Weirich

Lyrics provided by <https://damnllyrics.com/>