

It's My Time

Martina McBride

Red sun settin' on the road behind her
A hundred miles out of her hometown
Drops a quarter in a beat up pay phone

 Listens to it, rattle on down

Voice as cold as the phone she's holding

 The connection's way too clear

He's yelling "Where's my dinner?"

 She's too far gone to care

 She says, "Listen here"

There's a time to stand and the time is now or never

 A time to fly, time to let go forever

 A time to grow and a time to discover

 Life is precious, every second

 You've wasted mine and it's my time

 She puts a few more miles between them

 He pours a distance of his own

 Starts talking to the bottle

 It's all that left now she's gone

 He rages on till the national anthem

 Comes on his TV then he looks

 Straight at the bottle

 And says you did this to me

 And then he screams

There's a time to stand and the time is now or never

 A time to fly, time to let go forever

 A time to grow and a time to discover

 Life is precious, every second

 You've wasted mine and it's my time

 It's my time, it's my time, it's my time

 And the time is what you make it

 It's my time, it's my time, it's my time

 And time is what you're takin'

There's a time to stand and the time is now or never

 A time to fly, time to let go forever

 A time to grow, and a time to discover

 Life is precious, every second

 You've wasted mine, it's my time
