Metalhead

Running Wild

There's power in your blood, there's thunder in your veins
Staunchness is the way to keep you away from pain
If your everlasting soul is shedding of its fear
You'll be a rebel at heart, a stone in their gearFear and pain, Hades' name
Sin and pride their evil guideMetalhead, trust in yourself and fight
Metalhead, free your mind
Metalhead, deny the darkened side
Metalhead, your soul is primeThey try to break your back, they want to take away your pride
Fatheads are what they need, they want to take you for a ride
Backbiters're telling lies to bring you into line
They try to ban the truth cause power and money's primeFear and pain, Hades' name
Sin and pride their evil guideMetalhead, trust in yourself and fight
Metalhead, free your mind
Metalhead, deny the darkened side
Metalhead, your soul is primeThey fear the ancient symbols, true evil always will Now ascending's rising, the fate will be fulfilled
Banning of savior from evil, the holy pentagram
They know exactly who they are, blackest minds and menFear and pain, Hades' name
Sin and pride their evil guideMetalhead, trust in yourself and fight
Metalhead, free your mind
Metalhead, deny the darkened side
Metalhead, your soul is primeMetalhead, trust in yourself and fight
Metalhead, free your mind
Metalhead, deny the darkened side
Metalhead, your soul is prime
