

Death By Misadventure

Wussy

Don't have to hide it anymore our death by misadventure the note you left me on the door said go away I'm sleeping so I leave but I believe you've been entertaining someone else so I do what I think I'm supposed to and I entertain myself

Don't have to bother anymore our death by misadventure scribble pages on the floor all full of hope and sadness someday we can write a book that tells of all the stupid things we've done and when we do you know we won't get away without a (thinking?) song

Don't have to hide it anymore our death by misadventure the note you left me on the door said come on it's open when I do the smell of you the lavender comes at me like a truck
You know I'll never ever last quite long enough and that is just my love
You know I'll never ever last quite long enough and that is just my love
