Ghost

Dotan

Hold on to mornings, hold on so tight
When you crawl through these moments
With a fear locked inside
Waving off the tracks, as life passes by Oh, i'm a ghost of my lifeHow long i sailed without, passing my homeland
Felt all the emptiness, in the palm of your hands
Oh boy, keep sailing right into this evening's skiesBut, it's alright
It's alright
it's alrightI'm a ghost, so cold
Living in my shadow
Into the night, into the night of gold
All these memories unknown
Leaving before these breakdowns
Into the light, into the light of goldBlinding shadows
Blinding lights
Climbing that safety rope, until it blinds your sight
Growing and growing till the beast comes alive
Oh, i'm a ghost of my lifeThe cold wind is blowing
Upon the deep
Buried away under, these hands of memories
Saving what is left of scarred paradise
But, it's alright
It's alright
it's alrightI'm a ghost, so cold
Living in my shadow
Into the night, into the night of gold
All these memories unknown
Leaving before these breakdowns
Into the light, into the light of gold
