

Born to Lead

Falling in Reverse

Don't waste your time, it will never work
Don't try and fight, it only makes it worse
And I will never be the one you can defeat

Believe in me 'cause I was born to lead I'm on your side, don't ever believe
Or let anybody tell you, you cannot achieve your dreams

What are you fighting for?

Let down your guard, lift up your arms
Salute to the sky and be thankful you're here!

The man in the mirror's the one that you fear the most
And just like a ghost, you'll escape your fate

You must not lose your hope To be the last one standing up
And when that day comes

They'll know what you're about Don't waste your time cause it will never work
Don't try and fight, it only makes it worse
And I will never be the one you can defeat

Believe in me 'cause I was born to lead I've got your back, so fuck what they say
The hate that they show, should enable your strength
Don't stray, stand up and fight, rise from the ashes!

Open your eyes and fight

Fuck the ones that are holding you down
Open your eyes, you're wearing the crown

You are the reason they even exist
So put up your fist!

The power is in you now! To be the last one standing up
And when that day comes

They'll know what you're about Don't waste your time cause it will never work
Don't try and fight, it only makes it worse
And I will never be the one you can defeat

Believe in me 'cause I was born to lead The time has come to show them what you're made of Go!Motherfucking move! Don't waste your time cause it will never work

Don't try and fight, it only makes it worse
And I will never be the one you can defeat

Believe in me 'cause I was born to lead Don't waste your time cause it will never work
Don't try and fight, it only makes it worse
And I will never be the one you can defeat
Believe in me 'cause I was born to lead
